Providing Relief to those who faced various difficulties on Political Grounds

It has been decided at the meeting of the Cabinet of Ministers held on 08.04.2015 to provide relief to those, who have become victims on the political grounds from 1994 to 2014 in relation to matters such as Appointments, Promotions, Transfers etc, by examining their appeals.

02. Persons, who were victimized on political grounds relevant to the above period, should forward their appeals to the below mentioned address before 05.05.2015.

Additional Secretary (Public Administration)
Ministry of Public Administration, Local Government and Democratic Governance
Independence Square
Colombo 07.

03. Further, the appeals received by any of the Party Headquarters relevant to the above period can also be forwarded to the Additional Secretary (Public Administration) as mentioned in paragraph 02 above.

04. Such appeals received will be submitted to a Committee appointed by me. The recommendations made by the Committee on Appointments, Promotions, and Transfers and recommendations related to Disciplinary Charges will be forwarded to the Administrative Authorities and Appointing Authorities for appropriate actions.

05. In case where the Committee makes recommendations for the provision of financial relief, action will be taken by me to inform the Secretaries to the relevant Ministries to take necessary measures to implement such recommendations obtaining required financial provisions from the General Treasury.
