Establishment of a New Insurance Scheme for Public Officers in Terms of the Budgetary Proposals for 2005 - (Agrahara)

Your attention is drawn to the Public Administration Circular 12/2005 dated 18.05.2005 and the provisions of circulars issued as the revisions to the aforesaid circular.

02. The Cabinet of Ministers has decided at its meeting held on 30.03.2016 to extend the provisions already implemented further under two new schemes i.e. “Silver Scheme” and “Gold Scheme”, to which the contributions would be made on the consent of the contributor, and further to introduce a new scheme in the name of “Agrahara Rekawarana” for retired public officers.

03. Accordingly, the public officers will be granted an opportunity, on their consent, to be a contributor for the “Silver Scheme” making a monthly contribution of Rs. 300/- and for the “Gold Scheme” making a monthly contribution of Rs. 600/- instead of the contribution of Rs. 125/- paid at present by the contributor for enjoying the benefit of Insurance Scheme. The benefits under “Silver Scheme” and the benefits under “Gold Scheme” are indicated in Annex 01 and 02 respectively.

- 3.1 The contributor shall not be allowed again to be the contributor of a scheme with a lower contribution until the time of retirement once such contributor exercises his option for a scheme with higher contribution as mentioned above. However, a contributor, who exercises the option for the Silver Scheme shall only be allowed to change his option to be a contributor for the Gold Scheme at later occasion.
- 3.2 In order to contribute for Silver Scheme or Gold Scheme, the officers, who have already contributed for the General Insurance Scheme of Agrahara, shall submit their consent in accordance with Annex 03 attached herewith to the National Insurance Trust Fund along with the recommendation of the Head of the Department.
- 3.3 Whenever the option is exercised for insurance schemes with more benefits, the contributor shall be entitled to the benefits of the scheme under previous contribution until the lapse of 03 months from the date of recovery of first instalment.
- 3.4 However, an officer who exercises his option either for Silver Scheme or Gold Scheme at the time of his first appointment shall be entitled to the benefits applicable under the afore said schemes from the date of recovery of first instalment.

04. "Agrahara Rekawarana" Insurance Scheme introduced on monthly contribution of Rs. 200/- for retired officers shall be applicable for the benefits mentioned in Annex 04 subjected to the following terms and conditions.

- 4.1 All the public officers retired from 01.01.2016 and the officers, who would retire in future from the effective date of this circular, shall compulsorily contribute for this insurance scheme.
- 4.2 The contributions shall be recovered from 01.05.2016, the effective date of the circular. However, no recovery shall be made for contribution in arrears for the period from 01.01.2016 up to the effective date of this circular.

- 4.3 Only the contributor shall be entitled for claiming benefits in respect of the events and situations which occur after the date of recovery of contribution.
- 4.4 Contributor shall be entitled for benefits until reaching the age of 70.
- 4.5 Contributions of retired public officers shall be remitted monthly to the National Insurance Trust Fund after recovering such contributions by the Department of Pensions.
- 4.6 The contributor shall submit the claim forms to the NITF getting the confirmation from the Grama Niladhari of the area to the effect that the information in the claim forms are true and correct.
05. A circular containing the instructions of administrative provisions in relation to the Agrahara Rekawarana Insurance Scheme introduced to retired public officers shall be issued in due course by the Director General of Pensions.
06. The provisions of this circular shall be effective from 01.05.2016.
